

Samfundsmøte

22. mars 2023 kl. 19

*Presidential election ISFiT
2025*

Decision protocol

1. The meeting is in session

The meeting is in session at 19:08.

2. Approval of the agenda

There will be no artistic performances during the meeting.

The agenda was approved with acclamation.

3. Information from the board

The board wants to inform Storsalen of the following.

This Saturday there will be a demonstration for the climate crisis in the world. The demonstration will start at the town hall and here at Samfundet. At Samfundet there will be possible to attend a climate café and Samfundsmøte: Klimakrise where Norway's role in the global crisis will be addressed.

Astri, the new leader at Samfundet, is putting together her board. If you are interested in working with student politics and creating an arena for discussion, the last chance to send an application is tonight.

The board has nothing else to inform you about.

4. Political five

5. Introduction by Åse Håtveit

6. Opening speech

7. Questioning of the candidates

The candidates are asked four quick statements where they will answer by holding up a red or a green paper.

- ISFiT25 will recruit more participants than ISFiT23
- The final product is more important than the process
- ISFiT25 should result in the participants taking a form of action, not just having dialogue and debates.
- The culture program is for participants first, and students in Trondheim second.

Question that the candidates have been able to prepared for:

- Why are you running for president of ISFiT25?

Questions from the audience

1. Katja Brødholt: Who is the cultural program for? And why?
2. Lea Longva: We have recently elected a new leader at Samfundet who wants to be more political. Where does ISFiT stand here?
3. Anna Vindenes: Is there anything specific you want to change in ISFiT 25?
4. Frederick Nilsen: I want to hear more about you. What is your most polarizing and personal political opinion?
5. Runar Johnsen: How will you work to get volunteers? And What will you do to include them and make fewer people leave their position in ISFiT?
6. Leon Benkert: What is ISFiT? How will ISFiT change?
7. Camilla Dahl Øyan: UKA is well known, maybe more known than ISFiT. Do you think ISFiT should have a set graphic profile, like UKA, that only has smaller changes between the festivals?
8. Astri Elgethun: How will you make sure all the volunteers feel included at Samfundet?
9. Lars Ingar Tutturen: How will you work to make ISFiT seen, and make people want to volunteer in ISFiT instead of other organizations?
10. Christian Vigerust: How will you make ISFiT commit more to sustainable goals? How will ISFiT be more sustainable in general?

8. Break

9. Questioning of the candidates

Questions from the audience

1. Gaël Peebles-Christensen: How will you resolve the issues related to ISFiT being for everyone?
2. Lars Martin Hammer: You are going on the Berlin trip with the board. Two of them get into a fight. How will you try to resolve the issue between to of your board members?
3. Åsmund Hunderi Stemland: How can ISFiT change to accommodate as many students as possible even though they have to work on the side?
4. Kari Johanne Sørensen Bøckmann: Are you willing to move ISFiT if the ski world championship is set to the same dates?
5. Guro Sætre: What was your favorite event in ISFiT-23? What is your dream event in ISFiT-25?

6. Ina Marie Kvithyll: Why should we vote for the other person and the other candidate's theme?
7. Thomas Giedebo: What role does the Student peace prize have in ISFiT-25?
8. Kim-Iver Blindheimsvik: Where do you stand on having external sponsors of the festival? Would you consider cooperation with large companies as Equinor?
9. Gina Aarheim: Do you want to make any changes to the organization?
10. Åse Håtveit: You will recruit a new board. What kind of people are you looking for in your board?
